■ What is The Nippon Foundation DIVERSITY IN THE ARTS International Art Exhibition?

With a view to realizing an inclusive society in which everyone can participate, The Nippon Foundation DIVERSITY IN THE ARTS works on a project that conveys the significance and value of diversity to the wider public, breaks down boundaries and spurs interaction, with a focus on the area of artistic activities of people with disabilities. We started The Nippon Foundation DIVERSITY IN THE ARTS International Art Exhibition in 2018. This project leverages the power of art to encourage interaction among all people, with or without disabilities, share the excitement and joy, and help people with disabilities discover and fulfill their potential. To that end, the project is committed to providing opportunities for people with disabilities to engage in artistic activities, unearthing artistic talent, and supporting and showcasing activities of these artists, thereby conveying the significance and value of diversity to a wider audience in society.
